

Media is already narrow, one-sided and boring. Allowing more consolidation will NOT serve the public, it will serve only private interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. We need more, not less diversification to serve the public in the manner in which the FCC is intended to do. The airwaves belong to the people, not to special interests!